FOR RENT.—A new house of four rooms, hall, cellar and veranda. Hydrant in the yard. Call on Willis L. Ways, corner Cross and Conway streets.

There will be a grand Democratic Barbecue in Julian's woods, near Bridgeport, to-day, at which speaking, music, dancing and handshaking will be the order of the day.

Mr. Darsie occupies his pulpit at the Christian Church to-morrow morning and night at the usual hours. Night subject—"The Deceitfulness of Sin." All cordially welcomed.

A base ball club has been organized at Benson, of which Judge J. Dan. Moore is the manager. Col. Dave Moore is also an enthusiastic member, and is given up to be the boss back stop in the country. It is said the Louisville Club are anxious to secure him for their team next season. He is a strong batter and cannot be excelled as a base runner.

Miss Rebecca Averill gave a tea on Thursday evening to her friend, Miss Alice Page Nelson, of Virginia, who has recently come to the city to reside in the family of Col. Hoge. There were a number of our captivating belles and gallant beaux in attendance who enjoyed the evening to the full extent. Miss Rebecca is a charming hostess.

If there is any man in this country who has worse luck or more to discourage him than Capt. Sandy V. Pence we don't know who it is. In making a landing at Gratz on Tuesday his boat, the Hibernia, ran upon a rock in the bottom of the river and stove a hole in her hull, necessitating the unloading of the boat and laying her up for repairs.

Mr. Sam. Thomas, of White Sulphur, Scott county, a young man well known in this city, was assaulted in a cowardly manner and brutally beaten with a stick by J. H. Northeutt, at that place on Saturday afternoon. He was sitting on his horse when Northeutt came up behind him and dealt him a fearful blow on the back of the head, knocking him senseless and fracturing his skull. Thomas, as attorney for Lexington parties, had several executions issued to satisfy judgments against Northeutt, which so enraged him that he took this cowardly method of wreaking his vengeance.

Mr. Thomas was improving at last accounts, but was still suffering great pain.

There is nothing this city needs so much as an electric fire alarm system. Thursday night of last week the saw dust pile at Mr. J. M. Wakefield's mill caught fire, and the alarm was given, but no one could get to a telephone to notify the fire department of the locality of the blaze, and they ran all over town before finding where it was, losing much valuable time. If the city had an alarm system the exact locality of the fire would have been given in the engine house, and the fire boys could have gone directly to it on leaving the house. A complete system, with fourteen boxes, bell striker, gong, joker, apparatus for unloosing the horses in their stalls and letting them out to run to their places, &c., can be had for $2,000 or $2,500, and would be money well spent. Our city is fast assuming larger proportions and should keep up with our sister cities in providing all the modern applications for protection against destructive fires.

Hot and dry.

Benson will barbecue July 31st.

The candidates are waking up the boys.

Magistrate's race "red hot and still heating."

Make no mistake boys, S. S. S. means Sudduth Sulphur Springs.

Mr. James W. Hodges and family, of Waco, Texas, are visiting relatives at Benson.

Shad could not steal "dad's old mar" oh! how sad. Come over, Shad, and I'll lend you my cat.

Mr. Jas. A. Flynn's saw-mill cuts 10,000 feet per day. Mr. Basil Semonis engineer. "Dad's old mar," he's a goodun," quoth Jim.

Your devil or somebody else made me say Dan, when it should have been Dave in my last letter. In other words Dave Moore stole the sheep.

Mr. Flynn's coat caught fire from the engine last week, when most consumed a terrific explosion occurred, many of the neighbors believed it was Gabriel's trumpet, others contended that Dave Moore had only fallen from old "yaller." But the subsequent inhabitation soon told the tale. Jim insists that it was only a little turpentine to grease "mine ingun." But the sad truth boys, it smelled more like Uncle Zeke Yokum's "mad dog."

I am (pardon egotism) a handsome maiden of sweet 16, weigh 92 pounds, medium blonde, fond of music, the boys give me a gracious smile; but say, Uncle Zeke, can't you send me a beau. Not at all particular who, except he must not be over 25, weigh less than Dave Moore, drink no whisky, chew no tobacco, and eat no opium. Say, if you see such a fellow send him this way by telephone immediately if not sooner. Don't want them stone-kitchen "fellows," nobody from Harper's Ferry; by the way how is the itch? Kinder think you would fill the bill minus the itch and Republican proclivities. We certainly can be one on the subject of "John Barleycorn" or "Bamboozle Juice." All correspondents please address Sweet Belle My Own, S. S. S. SWEET 16.

Editor Roundabout:

Governor Knott is advertised to address the Democracy at the picnic at Julian's woods, July 31st. We hope the Governor will, in his address, explain how he, as the Governor of Kentucky, permits criminal convicts of the most heinous crimes to be turned loose upon the city of Frankfort to walk the streets through the day and a portion, of the night in open violation of the law, and to be employed in families and to do other work that honest labor in our midst could do.

It looks bad for Kentucky for her Governor to have felons employed at the Executive Mansion and the State House, to do the work some poor man would gladly do for a mere pittance. Let the Governor explain himself to the people on the subject July 31st. The people are anxious to hear from him.

Respectfully,
A CITIZEN OF FRANKFORT.

The Centennial Register.

OFFICE OF BRADLEY & GILBERT

PUBLISHING COMPANY,

LOUISVILLE, KY., July 1, 1886.

Hon. John L. Scott, Chairman Centennial Committee, Frankfort, Ky.:

DEAR SIR:—I am pleased to learn that the citizens of Frankfort propose celebrating, in a manner befitting the occasion, the one hundredth anniversary of the settlement of that city, and I beg to be allowed the privilege of contributing to the success of the enterprise by presenting to the Centennial Committee a Register, in which all the residents of, and visitors to, Frankfort may inscribe their names, with such historical and biographical remarks as they may see fit to write.

Such a register might, when completed, be deposited with the archives of the city, and would, I feel confident, prove not only interesting, but valuable to future generations. I am impelled to this offer by no desire for self-glorification or personal aggrandizement, but by one of the strongest of all human motives—love of one's native place—as well as by gratitude to the people of Frankfort and Franklin county for honors conferred upon my father and uncle, and for the many courtesies extended to me and mine.

Should your committee decide to accept this offer, please advise me at your earliest convenience, so that the book may be made and forwarded to you in time to be of service for the purpose for which it is suggested. You will also oblige me by suggesting a form by which to make the register, so that as much information as possible may be contained in the space allowed. Wishing you and your committee abundant success in the preparation and execution of your plans, I am very truly

Your obedient servant,

JNO. C. HERNDON,

Vice Pres't. of the Bradley & Gilbert Co.

To which the Centennial Committee made the following reply in accepting the offer:

FRANKFORT, KY., July 5th, 1886.

John C. Herndon, Esq.:

Your letter of the 1st instant, tendering for the use of Frankfort's first Centennial, on the sixth of next October, a large register prepared for that purpose by your publishing house, has been received, and your generous offer will be accepted with equal gratitude and pride. Your motives in bestowing the gift are among the highest and purest that actuate human conduct, springing alone from your desire to do good to your native place.

Allow me to suggest that the register be made of durable material, and in the form of an alphabetical index, so that everything relating to the same office, person, family or society may be readily found under the proper letter, and that the register be large enough to contain 30,000 names, with suitable headings for remarks, and with sufficient blank pages, either at the front or back, to hold a complete list of all the Governors and State Officials of Kentucky, as well as the Mayors and Officers of Frankfort during its existence.

Your suggestion that this register, with a full registration of all the citizens of Frankfort, and all who attend and take part in the Centennial, with all the facts that may be gathered from all the offices, churches, societies and business interests, and all the orations, poems and other offerings, be turned over to the archives of the city, to be preserved until the second centennial, a hundred years hence, is a good one, and I have no doubt that your wishes in this regard will be obeyed in due form at the close of the centennial ceremonies.

Yours,

JOHN L. SCOTT,
Chairman Centennial Committee.

Inflammatory Rheumatism.

For over two years I suffered intensely with muscular rheumatism. I became almost helpless, and had to be helped out of bed. At times I was unable to turn myself in bed, and had to be handled as tenderly as an infant. My chest was involved, and the pain was intolerable at times. All the old and well-known remedies were exhausted, but no permanent relief was obtained. About a year ago I was induced by a friend to try Swift's Specific. The effect has been magical. My friends scarcely recognize me. My rheumatism is entirely gone, my general health is superb, and I am weighing thirty pounds more than when I began taking S. S. S. I am able to attend to all my ministerial work. I am devoutly grateful for my restoration to health; which I owe, under the blessing of God, to Swift's Specific.

Wild Cherry and Tar.

Everybody knows the virtues of Wild Cherry and Tar as a relief and cure for any affections of the Throat and Lungs, combined with these ingredients are a few simple healing remedies in the composition of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup making it just the article you should always have in the house for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Bronchitis. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Samples free. Sold by Hughes and Chiles. 3

HALL'S HAIR RENEWER.

The great popularity of this preparation, after its test of many years, should be an assurance, even to the most skeptical, that it is really meritorious. Those who have used HALL'S HAIR RENEWER know that it does all that is claimed.

It causes new growth of hair on bald heads—provided the hair follicles are not dead, which is seldom the case; restores natural color to gray or faded hair; preserves the scalp healthy and clear of dandruff; prevents the hair falling out or changing color; keeps it soft, pliant, lustrous, and causes it to grow long and thick.

HALL'S HAIR RENEWER produces its effects by the healthful influence of its vegetable ingredients, which invigorate and rejuvenate. It is not a dye, and is a delightful article for toilet use. Containing no alcohol, it does not evaporate quickly and dry up the natural oil, leaving the hair harsh and brittle, as do other preparations.

Buckingham's Dye

FOR THE WHISKERS

Colors them brown or black, as desired, and is the best dye, because it is harmless; produces a permanent natural color; and, being a single preparation, is more convenient of application than any other.
